We do not sell personal information.

3. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

This website may use cookies and similar technologies to improve functionality, analyze traffic and optimize user experience.

Cookies may include:

- Essential website cookies
- Performance and analytics cookies
- Embedded media services
- Security and session cookies

Users may disable cookies through their browser settings, although some website functionality may be limited.

Where legally required, a cookie consent mechanism may be presented to visitors.

4. Third Party Services

HYROTEC may use third-party service providers to support website functionality and business operations.

These services may include:

- Website hosting providers
- Vimeo for embedded video content
- Elementor or WordPress-related services
- Analytics providers
- Security and performance tools
- Email and communication services

These third parties may process technical information necessary for the operation of their services.

HYROTEC does not control the privacy practices of external third-party websites or platforms.

5. International Data Transfers

Because HYROTEC operates internationally, personal information may be processed or transferred between jurisdictions, including but not limited to:

- United States
- United Arab Emirates
- European Economic Area (EEA)
- Other international locations where service providers operate

Reasonable technical and organizational measures are implemented to protect personal information during such transfers.

6. Data Retention

Personal information is retained only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, including:

- responding to inquiries,
- maintaining business communications,
- security monitoring,
- or complying with legal obligations.

Technical website data may be retained temporarily for system administration and security purposes.

7. Your Rights

Depending on your location and applicable laws, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to:

- request access to your data,
- request correction of inaccurate information,
- request deletion of personal information,
- object to certain processing activities,
- withdraw consent where applicable.

Requests may be submitted using the contact details below.

8. Data Security

HYROTEC implements reasonable technical and organizational security measures intended to protect personal information against unauthorized access, misuse, disclosure or destruction.

However, no internet-based system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

9. External Links

This website may contain links to external websites or third-party platforms.

HYROTEC is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of external websites.

10. Changes to This Privacy Policy

HYROTEC may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect operational, legal or technical changes.

Updated versions will be published on this page together with the revised effective date.

12. EEA / European Users

If you are located within the European Economic Area (EEA), United Kingdom or Switzerland, applicable data protection laws may provide additional rights regarding the processing of personal data.

Where required by law, HYROTEC will process personal data based on:

- legitimate business interests,
- contractual necessity,
- legal obligations,
- or user consent.

Users may also have the right to lodge a complaint with their local data protection authority.
